Summary of Legislation: This bill increases the membership on the Governor's Commission on Minority and Women's Business Enterprises from six to nine members with capabilities in business and industry appointed by the Governor.

Effective Date: July 1, 2002.

Explanation of State Expenditures: This bill will add three new lay members to the Governor's Commission on Minority and Women's Business Enterprises. Members of the Commission meet quarterly and are currently paid a per diem of $50, plus travel expenses. Based on these costs, the addition of these three members could increase the annual costs incurred by the Commission by $600, plus any additional travel expenses.

The Department of Administration provides administrative and staff support to the Commission.
